This is our school the place, the tradition, and the people with whom we have truly grown up. This last and most brief year has brought our feelings for Rutland High School into clear focus. Each classroom has been furnished with the Class of '63's gifts of spirit, of enthusiasm, even of fun. Thus our image has been placed in the halls of R. H. S. memory.

On behalf of the Senior Class, we dedicate our 1963 Talisman to our parents whose devotion, patience, and understanding have guided us so carefully through these last four years.

MAYNARD C. ROBINSON
PRINCIPAL

TO THE CLASS OF 1963:

The 1963 Talisman will be remembered, I am sure, as one of the better yearbooks produced by a Rutland High School class. It is a fine record of the year's activities and achievements and thereby reflects your school as you have helped to make it. Through your yearbook, you have indicated that you are proud of your school and of its achievements. I know that you are also proud of your record as a class and of the individual accomplishments of many of your classmates.

During these years at R. H. S. each of you has laid the foundation for your future. What that future may be will depend in part on the future of the human race, but if, having faith, we believe that humanity will survive and that yet unborn generations will live in a world better and brighter than the world we know today, then your futures as individuals will depend in a large part on the willingness of each of you to work and to make sacrifices, not only toward the achievement of your own goals, but for your fellow man.

Congratulations to you on this occasion. I join with your parents, your teachers, and your friends in wishing you success.

Sincerely,

Maynard C. Robinson

Principal

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

There is only one thing which will really train the student mind, and that is the voluntary use of the mind by the student himself. Educators may aid him, guide him, suggest to him, and, above all, they may inspire him, but the only knowledge of true value to the student is that which he obtains by his own exertions. The amount he obtains is the direct result of his effort.

Nostalgically we leave the cherished halls of Rutland High School, each of us enlightened to his own proportionate degree, and all of us in some way prepared to meet the challenges of society.

Looking back over some of the most meaningful days of our lives, we recognize the toil, the pride, and the achievement which we have experienced. In remembering these golden years, however, we must not foreget the many persons who have made them possible.

Therefore, on behalf of all the seniors and with a deep feeling of gratitude, I wish to express our appreciation to all those who have filled these years with purposeful meaning: the taxpayers and the administration, who have provided us with educational facilities; our parents, whose devotion we shall never be able to repay; and especially the faculty, who have given us the greatest tool in our struggle for success — our education.

Z-Z-Z-Z-Z-Z!

When we go, we go in style.

Happy Hallowe'en?

Only our hairdresser knows for sure.

I spilled it and I'll clean it up.

The morning after the night before.

Charley's Aunt

Charley's Aunt, ever-popular farce chosen by the Class of 1963 as its senior play, delighted capacity audiences in the auditorium on the evenings of November 15 and 16.

Hilariously funny, the play deals with the attempts of two young English university students to woo and win their lady loves, chaperoned by Charley's aunt, a fellow student in disguise, who has been pressed into service against his will. The merry mix-ups which result afforded one of the most entertaining evenings ever provided by a senior play cast.

Allen Kennedy in the title role played the part like a veteran performer, and Allen Smith and William Patten gave outstanding performances as the students. Supporting parts were played by Dena Apple, Patricia Canary, Judy Russell, Charlotte Bell, Jonathon Sherman, Gordon Appleby and Robert Anderson.

Student director Cynthia Marotti assisted Mrs. Crowley and Mr. LePage with the production.

I'm Charley's aunt from Brazil — where the nuts come from.

I'm so glad you were able to come here today.

Auntie, don't tease her so. Tell the story yourself.

And you'll be content for awhile with a cottage and your old sweetheart?

Then say you'll be mine.

Operation Midnight Clear

OPERATION MIDNIGHT CLEAR, the annual gift of R.H.S. to the community, was presented December 13 in the auditorium under the direction of Mr. Jack Alexander. The performance, which included traditional and contemporary music in both sacred and secular modes, featured dancers, singers, and instrumentalists.

The Christmas theme was presented through a parade of characters ranging from George Washington to a modern jet pilot. Scenes contrasting sleigh bells with steeple chimes and the Berlin Wall with the Nativity scene made this year's pageant one of the most novel presented at Rutland High in recent years.

War and the peace and hope of the ages are contrasted in this scene.

Warriors of the ages are represented in this battle tableau.

Fiesta

For four magic hours on the night of May 19, 1962, the cafeteria was transformed into a Latin-American Fiesta as the class of 1963 presented its Junior Prom. With gaily-colored pinata and multi-flowered decorations, Fiesta, under the co-chairmanship of Janice Duby and Steve Frankiewicz, was one of the most memorable proms ever held at RHS.

After being crowned queen of Fiesta, Pat Canary smiles at escort Bruce LaPoint.

Preparation of Thanksgiving baskets for the needy is a traditional Student Council activity.

As the governing body of the school, the Student Council was kept busy throughout the the year. At their bi-monthly meetings the members selected a Student of the Week and a Lion of the Month and considered suggestions placed in the suggestion box. In addition, they were daily on the job selling candy after school and inspecting homerooms in the morning.

On February 14, nineteen new members were inducted into the National Honor Society by those chosen in 1962. The ceremony centered about the four cardinal principles of the society — scholarship, character, leadership, and service. Later the members were entertained at a banquet served by the Future Homemakers of America.

For the past several years, the group has sponsored a Share Project at Christmas for the Brandon Training School. This year the members also purchased a Hi-Fi set for the children at the Brandon institution.

Rick Eaton, Allen Clark, Larry Kurdeka, Lincoln Porter, and Steve Frankiewicz prove that scholarship and athletics do mix.

Girls' and Boys' State

Five girls and nine boys were selected by the faculty for their leadership, character, scholarship, and interest in politics and government to represent RHS at Girls' and Boys' State. During their week's stay at the convention they took part in a mock state government.

We danced around the Christmas tree at "Yuletide Magic."

Their job, the task of maintaining order in the corridors, a selected group of thirty-two seniors stood their stations between classes and saw that student traffic moved smoothly. The monitors were chosen for their past record of leadership and service at the end of their junior year.

At Christmas time the group sponsored a very successful dance, "Yuletide Magic". They also held a food sale in January.

"All the world's a stage and all men and women merely players." In February, the "world" of HARVEY was presented on the stage of theR.H.S. auditorium. For a brief time the doors to another life were opened for the audience by the sparkling presentation of our Mimes actors.

Later in the spring Mimes staged a second comedy primarily to allow sophomores to obtain experience and develop new techniques as well as to demonstrate their talents.

Besides developing acting skills, the club provides junior boys with experience in set construction and training in lighting. Other students learn the art of make-up.

This year the students chose Martha Thomas, President; Sue Jehle, Vice-President; Patricia Spaulding, Secretary; Sharon Burke, Treasurer; and Sharon Moran, Program Chairman. Mrs. Elizabeth Greene was faculty adviser.

In the new industrial building in a fascinating room filled with wires, TV's, radios, and various other gadgets. With the best of equipment, boys not enrolled in the electronics course can learn the secrets of these intricate mechanisms. Members who are students of electronics benefit from more work with radio equipment. This year the members chose Norm Cimonetti, President; James Watterlund, Vice-President; and Harold Flanders, Secretary-Treasurer.

Have you seen the words, "Trade and Technical Department" on the exterior of the new R.H.S. annex? The Shop Council donated this sign, together with projector screens for the shop department, and scenery for the Cotillion and the Music Department. Members of the Council supplied the labor to complete unfinished parts of the annex, and at Christmas they decorated both the entrance and the interior of the industrial building.

Those students who wished to learn about the people of other nations joined the International Relations Club last fall. Under the able leadership of Gordon Appleby, President; Priscilla Throop, Vice-President; Barbara Smith, Treasurer; Elizabeth Weeks, Recording Secretary; Susan Jehle, Correspondence Secretary; and Dr. Douglas Stafford, Faculty Adviser, the club had a very successful year. The meetings were highlighted by movies and informal discussions.

A UNICEF collection at Hallowe'en the third annual dance in March, a talent show in April, and a new literary magazine with a collection of students' writing formed this year's agenda. The group also sponsored a U.N assembly and promoted a U.N. contest.

This year the main project of the club was to assist in sending a R.H.S. student to Europe to study for one year.

What makes America great? Her homes and the personalities that are created therein. The F.H.A. provides future homemakers with the knowledge and the skills that will benefit them after they leave high school to manage their own homes. This year the club focused attention on two objectives: Contributing to the joys and satisfactions of family living, and strengthening one's education for future roles. The program provided for both local and state speakers and informal workshops. In addition to their regular meetings, the girls prepared the dinners for the National Honor Society and Disabled Veterans' banquets, the latter given in honor of seniors on the honor roll the first marking period. The organization also "adopted" a needy family and gave them a food basket at Christmas.

The F.H.A. was under the leadership of Judith Beauchamp, President; Diana Bowen, Vice-President; Pauline Shackett, Secertary; Lynn Hill, Treasurer; and Mrs. Helen Sloan, Adviser.

"Aimez-vous les jeunes filles?" is a familiar question of the boys in French club, since the madamoiselles outnumber the monsieurs five to one. Developing fluency in the language and acquainting members with French customs, holidays, and landmarks, Le Circle Francais meets bi-monthly with programs featuring games, contests, songs, films, and dramatizations. Under the direction of Mrs. Helen Mangan, the club was led by Stella Carrara, President; Carlie Onion, Secretary; and Deborah Arnold, Treasurer.

Coach Teta

Under a new coaching staff headed by "Joe" Teta, Rutland High School ended a season of five wins and three losses. The R.H.S. — M.S.J. game can only be termed a heartbreaker. School spirit and student support were excellent all through the season.

The Tetamen, plagued with injuries and bad luck, proved themselves to be one of the scrappiest teams in the league, although usually outweighed by their opponents. As Coach Teta stated, "Our trouble will not be scoring, but with keeping the other team from scoring."

At the close of the season Steve Frankiewicz and Rick Eaton were named to the All-Star first team and Lincoln Porter to the second team. Larry Kurdeka and Andy Welch received honorable mention.

Coaches Teta and Keefe watch a practice session.

After winning five out of six games in pre-SVL play, the team went into a prolonged slump, emerging with only two victories after fourteen league games. With an added loss of 45-40 to Bellows Falls in a play-down for a tourney berth, the Raiders ended the season with a 7-14 record, one of the most dismal in R.H.S. basketball history. Lost to the team by graduation will be Lorimer, Frankiewicz, Glen Fitzgerald, Eaton Bowen, and Pingree.

CROSS COUNTRY

The cross country team, coached by Mr. Hugh Short, enjoyed a successful season, closing the campaign with a record of six wins and three losses. Dennis Eells, team captain, placed first in six meets while George Casey was first place winner in a dual meet with Otter Valley High School. In the state meet, Steve Noble came in eleventh, with the team emerging fourth in the event.

While attracting less student and crowd support than other R.H.S. sports, the cross country team has continued to show up well in interscholastic competition each year that this sport has been in existence at Rutland High School.

GOLF

Prior to the Southern Vermont match held in Rutland last fall, the golf team participated in five matches, tying with M.S.J. for first place in one tri-school match. Pete Kenyon placed fifth in the Southern Vermont event. Opponents were Springfield. Bennington, Middlebury, and Mt. St. Joseph Academy.

Kneeling: M. Wolinsky, W. Mazer, J. Savage; Standing: G. Chioffi, B. Griffin, J. Murphy, M. Grimshaw, B. Smatresk, R. Franzoni, G. Stickney, P. Kenyon, Mr. James Canary, Coach.

Front row, left to right: J. Potter, D. Tanen, D. Arnold, M. Stafford, S. Chaffee; Second row: L. Robinson, L. Wilson, M. McKenzie; Third row: D. Ross, R. Rounds, M. Hebert, M. Vincent, S. Seeley, P. Odett; Fourth row: J. Smith.

The R.H.S. boys' Ski Team had a relatively successful season after losing several good skiers from last year's team. After finishing last in the season's first meet, the team improved enough to finish 2nd in the last two meets. In the Southern District meet at Putney they placed 4th and were 8th in the state meet at Lyndonville. John Mitchell was southern district cross country champion.

Kneeling, left to right: M. Grimshaw, R. Holland, J. McGinnis, J. Mitchell, K. Norton, H. McLeod, A. Smith; Second row: W. Carris, T. Rondeau; Third row: M. Fredette, B. Mazer, T. Zabsky, P. Stickney, Mr. Charles Lull, Coach; L. Johnson, D. Johnson, R. Durgin, M. Connolly.

The Varsity team had greater success than the Junior Varsity in the abbreviated interscholastic schedule, compiling a 3-1 record against a 1-3 showing for the junior team.

The Varsity registered one win over Fair Haven and two over Ludlow while losing once to Middlebury.

The J.V. squad was able to conquer only Fair Haven.

Coached by Mrs. Maynard, both squads showed excellent spirit and sportsmanship.

Acknowledgments

The production of a year book is a major project, requiring the time, effort, and cooperation of many persons. To all who have contributed in any way to the success of the 1963 Talisman goes the appreciation of its editors. In particular, they wish to thank the following for their help:

Mrs. Katherine Hinchey, editorial staff adviser
Mr. Lewis McKerley, business staff adviser
Miss Lucy Doane, consultant in art
Mr. Aldo Merusi, special events photographer
Janet Benton '63 cover artist
John Eaton '63, cover designer
Rachel Brink '63 and Bonnie Harvey '63 for typing.
The entire staff, for cooperation and diligence
The patrons, for their generosity
The advertisers, for their indispensable financial support
